Some Signs Seen Calcutta Tension May Be Lessening

Outbreaks In Calcutta Have Taken At Least 2,000
Lives Since Friday

DEAD AND WOUNDED ABOUND ON STREETS

By FANK MORAES
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

CALCUTTA, Aug. 19.—British and Indian troops mounted a protective patrol alongside native police today as stabbings, beatings and looting continued in several areas of Calcutta. However, there were some signs that tension has begun to ease.

The outbreaks have claimed more than 2,000 Hindu, Moslem and Sikh lives since Friday.

A few people dared to leave their homes today to return to work, but a cautious feeling prevailed. The English-language newspaper, The Statesman, suggested that the death toll may already have reached 3,000. Uncounted thousands have been injured and the streets are speckled with dead and wounded alike.

PA NEW OBSERVES

When the by-pass route for 422 through the city is completed, and placed in use, some more traffic lights will be needed, it is likely. At south Mill street intersection of the new route, and at the turnoff on South Jefferson street, traffic lights will probably be required.

Heavy rains over the week-end made quite a difference in the appearance of vegetation and lawns today. Lawns especially are greening up. Most of them were badly burned out by the long dry spell that preceded the rains of the week-end.

Some of the farmers have a way to beat the heat while working in the fields. Pa New noted a number of farmers who were riding tractors sheltered from the sun's rays by large umbrellas covering their seat on the tractor.

Several more streets in Neshannock township, west of the Wilmington road, just outside the city limits have been improved with a black top surface, recently, Pa New discovers.

Many people wonder who would buy a war surplus tank. Somewhere a farmer bought one to use on his farm, but here in New Castle, it was reported to Pa New, a construction company bought one to do heavy work. It hasn't been used to any extent as yet, but after some modifications it is expected that it will be put to considerable use.

Occasionally there are those passengers who get on a bus and forget to pay. Pa New noticed one the other night who after getting on, forgot to pay. She went to the rear of the bus and sat down. At the next stop the bus filled and not until then did she remember the token in her hand belonged in the box at the door. She fought her way to the box, dropped in the token and fought her way to the seat at the rear of the bus. With her head bowed and a look of embarrassment, she went on her way. Week-End Death Toll In State In Accidents Is 13

Auto Crashes, Drownings
And Plane Disasters Take Lives Of Large Number

(By International News Service)

A death toll of at least 13 persons was marked up today in one of the state's most disastrous accident-riddled week-ends of the summer.

Throughout the state, the fatalities were listed as follows:
Highway accident deaths—five.
Drownings—five.
Plane crashes—three.

In addition, a Philadelphia man died of a heart attack while driving his family back from the seashore and only quick action by one of his children in grabbing the wheel and applying the brakes prevented another tragedy.

Youngster Killed

One of the highway victims was a 20-month-old youngster—Barbara Schwegel, of Drexel Hill, near Philadelphia. She was run down in front of her home.

Quote Stalin As Warning Reds On War Front

LONDON, Aug. 19.—(INS)—Radio Moscow quoted Premier Stalin today as warning all Russians against an "international reaction" from which has plans for a new war.

Stalin's statement was said to have been issued on the first anniversary of the defeat of Japan. He declared:
"Millions of workers throughout the world see as decisive the strength of our state, which is now resting with success the attempts of international reaction to set ablaze a new war."

The Russian leader claimed credit for the Soviet's share in the Japanese defeat. He pointed out:
"Japan did not last three weeks after we added our blows to those of our allies."

Nation To Be Mighty

Stalin predicted Russia's new five-year plan will make his nation "stronger and more mighty." He said:
"During the past year we achieved important successes in reconstruction and the development of our national economy."

"We have entered on a new Stalin five-year plan which will make our country still stronger and more mighty and the lives of our toilers still better."

"Many important events have happened in the world during this year. The democratic order in the state liberated by the Red army from the yoke of fascism has been strengthened."

Truman Says Vacation Trip Is Not Political

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

QUONSET NAVAL AIR STATION, R. I., Aug. 19.—(INS)—President Truman began the fourth day of his vacation in New England waters today with a personal declaration that his cruise is for rest and relaxation and not to brew politics.

The chief executive brusquely brushed aside any idea that the fact Solicitor General J. Howard McGrath, senatorial candidate, will be on hand today and not Senator Theodore Francis Green, had anything to do with politics.

McGrath and Governor John Pastore will welcome the president to Rhode Island.

A reporter for a Rhode Island paper, noting that Senator Green's (Continued on Page Two)

To Seek Changes In Labor Laws

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—(INS)—Sen. Owen Brewster (R) Maine promised today that the next Congress would see a move to equalize treatment of employers and employees under the National Labor Relations Act.

Brewster hailed criticisms of the labor law made last week by Gerard D. Reilly, for five years a member of the National Labor Relations board, and said they would be used as a basis for proposed changes in the law.

The Maine Republican placed high on the list of needed revisions in the Wagner act the removal of restrictions on presentation of the employer's side of the case in a bargaining election.

He termed this provision "a violation of the principle of free speech."

New Postponement Of U. N. Assembly Sessions Is Likely

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(INS)—The United Nations Security Council planned to send its assistant secretary-general, Arkady A. Sobolev, to Paris this week for a decision on possible further postponement of the UN general assembly meeting, now scheduled to gather in New York on September 23.

Limping progress of the acrimonious Paris peace conference has about decided a number of Security Council representatives that still another delay of the full assembly meeting will be necessary. Already it has once been deferred from September 3 to September 23.

PALESTINE—WIDE OFFENSIVE HINTED (BULLETIN)

JERUSALEM, Aug. 19.—(INS)—A mysterious warning that the Jerusalem general postoffice would be blown up was received by British authorities today coincident with reports that Jewish underground groups have joined forces for a Palestine-wide offensive against British authorities.

JERUSALEM, Aug. 19.—(INS)—Arab legionnaires made an appearance in the Holy City today as Jewish underground groups reportedly joined forces for a Palestine-wide offensive against British authorities.

The Arabs, imported from Transjordan, are guarding entrances to all government buildings. Callers at the post office are being carefully searched for weapons.

British troops posted throughout Jerusalem are stopping all buses and automobiles to check passengers' identity papers.

The main thoroughfare through the city is blocked by machine gun carriers to facilitate the check-up.

Army officers hinted they have captured secret Jewish documents calling for "total war" and pointing to an assassination attempt against "five very important persons."

Maritime Union Predicts Tieup Of All Lake Ports

Lake Carriers Association Disputes
Strike Claims Of Unions
On Present Tieup

DETROIT, Aug. 19.—(INS)—Officials of the striking national maritime union predict today that all lake ports will be tied up within a week forcing possible shutdowns in the iron and steel industry.

The iron and steel institute announced that if the five-day-old walkout ties up ore shipments the iron and steel industry may be forced to close late in the season.

The institute's statement explained that to maintain maximum production through the winter, lake carriers must ship 37,691,161 tons of ore by November. The statement declared that "it will be remarkable if the lake fleet can average ten millions of ore per month in August, September and October" as a result of the shipping tie-up.

The union and the Lake Carriers Association repeatedly are disputing the effectiveness of the strike. President of the LCA A. T. Wood declared that 16 ships previously strike-bound have rejoined the operating fleet since the walkout began. Wood added that 281 out of 316 ships are in service.

"All but one of the 69 principal docks on the Great Lakes," Wood claims, "are continuing to service the fleet as usual."

State James F. Byrnes and President Truman, Acheson found problems connected with almost all the disputes cluttering up his desk.

Foremost was believed to be a late incident in Yugoslavia where Tito's soldiers were reported to have shot down a U. S. army plane that again had flown inadvertently over banned territory.

Storm Forces Plane To Land On Golf Course

Unable to outride a severe rainstorm, and with ice forming on the wings of his plane from a hailstorm several thousand feet over New Castle, about 7:30 o'clock Saturday evening, Dr. J. G. Hall, of Columbus, O., and his wife Mabel A., had a narrow escape from death or serious injury when the Taylorcraft cabin monoplane in which they were riding was forced down on the Castle Hills golf course No. 9 fairway.

Despite being unable to see through his windshield the doctor made an almost perfect landing on the fairway, which due to the rain was wet and slippery and his brakes failed to hold. The plane skidded along the fairway and crashed into a pine tree and finally came to rest on the iron railing around the practice range.

Doctor Hall estimated to a News man that damage to his plane, comparatively new, with only 30 hours use, would run between $400 and $500. Damage to the golf course was not estimated by Mrs. Ethel Ludwig.

Escape Without Injury

Reporters Interview Son Of President Monroe, Aged 13 1/2

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(INS)—A Confederate flag clutched in his hand and a cigar jammed jauntily in his mouth, Major Edward James Monroe, 13-year-old son of President Monroe, ambled into the offices of Bernard MacFadden today under his own power and exposed himself to an interview by the New York press.

This astoundingly aged man appeared to be in remarkable physical condition, everything considered. (Continued on Page Two)

Paul F. Butz was elected president of the Old Timers' reunion at a meeting of the committee Friday evening. J. Carl Lieberdorfer was elected treasurer at the same meeting.

Mr. Kearns, the master-of-ceremonies, is a candidate for Congress in his district.

GEN. MACARTHUR CANCELS PLAN FOR BROADCAST

TOKYO, Aug. 19.—(INS)—General MacArthur today cancelled the Sept. 2 radio broadcast which he planned to make to the United States in commemoration of the signing of the Japanese surrender aboard the Battleship Missouri.

The Allied commander said the broadcast was cancelled because the press already has published a resume of the year of Japanese occupation.

MacArthur had planned to give his own account of the first year of the occupation during a 25-minute broadcast.

But this was only one trouble spot which emphasizes what appears to be a growing cleavage between Russia and her satellites on one hand and the western powers on the other. The only possible exceptions in the roster of trouble spots which do not emphasize this difference are Palestine and India. And the United States has committed itself to an interest in Palestine.

In India the United States is interested only generally as a possible breeding ground for future war. (Continued on Page Two)

Price Decontrol Board Is Rushing Action On Issues

Tentative Program Calls For Announcement Of Price
Control Tuesday
At 8 P. M.

NO INDICATION YET ON VERDICT

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—(INS)—The price decontrol board continued its all-day sessions under a veil of secrecy in an attempt to reach a decision tomorrow on whether price controls should remain off basic food commodities.

The board has announced that it will reveal tomorrow night whether ceilings will be restored on livestock, grain, dairy products, soybeans and cottonseed products. If it fails to act by midnight Tuesday, there commodities automatically go back under controls.

There was absolutely no hint from the board on what its decision might be and members maintained a strict silence on this subject. Some observers, however, believed that price ceilings would be reimposed on at least some of the commodities.

Good Progress Made
A board spokesman quoted Chairman Roy L. Thompson as saying that "We've made a good deal of progress, but there are three or four points we haven't made determinations on."

Barring a hitch in present plans, the board's decision will be made public at 8 p. m. EDT tomorrow. Board members are scheduled to make a nation-wide broadcast over the CBS and ABC networks two hours later to explain their decision to the public.

A spokesman said that the radio talk also would give the board members an opportunity to point out the responsibilities confronting labor, industry, farmers and consumers after the determination of controls has been made.

Russia Twice Defeated In Treaty Moves

PARIS, Aug. 19.—(INS)—Russia was defeated twice today in moves to direct procedure in commissions for the Finnish and Hungarian peace treaties.

First test of commission voting came on a British objection to the meeting on Finland to a Soviet demand for immediate discussion of the treaty preamble.

The Russian proposal was defeated, 6 to 4, with two abstentions. An identical Soviet proposal in the Hungarian commission was defeated after objection by Australia.

A short meeting of the commission for Hungary was adjourned after it was decided there would be no general discussion on that treaty as a whole, and that Hungary would be invited to state its views in writing.

The economic commission on the Italian peace treaty also met and moved immediately that it be permitted to rule on the thorny issue of Trieste.

And did he get it by cutting hay or working a garden spot, or did he get it by playing golf on days that were blistering hot? Ah, no, he does not. He does none of these, from work and sports he's above; he got his tan in an easy way, by lying on a roof. But he has the tan and it covers him well, and I laugh when I hear folks say, "It bet he got it on a farm. It's 83 today."

Cost-Of-Living Increase Granted;
Seven New Persons On Faculty

All teachers employed at the present time by the school district of Union township will receive a $100 "cost of living" raise in addition to the annual raise of $100 now granted by the state, according to a resolution passed at a special meeting of the Union Township School board Saturday evening.

The raise was announced by Board Secretary Fred Vannatta.

Several new teachers have been employed for the elementary and high schools.

Mrs. Dorothy Edgerton Shaw, a New Castle resident and graduate of Slippery Rock State Teachers college, and Mrs. Mary Alice Kline, a New Castle resident, will teach at Sunny Avenue school, Randolph H. Parks of Edinburg, who graduated from Slippery Rock and has several years experience, will also teach at Sunny Avenue.

Marjorie Jean Marshall of New Castle, a recent graduate of Westminster, will teach at Union High school. At Union High school, Phyllis Wright, Edinboro State Teachers college graduate, will begin her first year of teaching, and Richard Nicol, University of Pittsburgh graduate and resident of Pittsburgh, will teach this year for the first time.

Mrs. John King, the former Helen McCommon, is returning to Union High school after an absence of two years.

name was not included, asked if there was any significance to be attached to it.

Absolutely not, the president retorted.

Nobody Invited

"This is a vacation. Nobody has been invited. Senator Green is one of the dearest friends I have in the world. Don't go making a mess out of it."

McGrath is the Democratic candidate for the position which Senator Phil Gerry is voluntarily vacating.

Senator Green, who has been in the senate for many years, is also a Democrat and is not even up for re-election. His term does not expire until 1948.

While meeting McGrath might mean the presidential nod for him as the Democratic candidate in opposition to any other, the significance of the president's retort was that he is insisting that his two and a half weeks vacation cruise be just that, and not interpreted as a presidential incursion into New England, with a weather eye on future politics.

Made Stop Ashore

This has been the viewpoint likewise expressed by presidential aides, and carried out in his schedule as thus far revealed.

The president made his first stop ashore yesterday afternoon when the Williamsburg docked at the naval air station on Narragansett Bay for an over-night stop.

There may be other shore stops along the way—probably several brief ones—but large cities have been ruled out and the White House insists there will be no public appearances and no political speeches.

The probability is that any other stops also will be at naval stations or army bases in the New England area.

The president, after seeing Governor Pastore and Solicitor General McGrath, this morning was to take, as he said, "a look around" the naval air station and other naval installations in the area.

to the plane runs as follows: Leading edge bent, three ribs out, one spar bent, shattered prop and outer cowling twisted. Dr. Hall said that he landed the plane between 40 and 50 miles an hour, and that everything would have gone well if the grass hadn't been wet. He flew over the golf course twice to get his bearings before dropping down, with the plane fast losing altitude, as the ceiling closed in. Dr. Hall is an experienced flier, having served with the CAP during the late world war.

Dr. Hall and his wife were enroute to this city on business and had left Columbus late in the afternoon. The landing caused quite a little excitement at the golf course and quite a number viewed the plane before it was towed to the New Castle airport.

CALCUTTA TENSION
MAY BE LESSENING

the steaming city and the dirty, but sacred, white cows are nosing among the corpses.

Religious Civil War
Even the frequent monsoon showers that water eastern India almost every hour during August almost failed to dampen the hatred which has converted the riots into a purely religious civil war.

Though the hostilities opened Friday as a political "direct action" protest of the Moslems, the only issue today is religion. Hindus and Sikhs were joined against the Moslems.

Members of either group were almost certain to suffer violent death if they were caught by Partisans of the other camp.

The battling has spread from the twisting streets of Calcutta to the muddy Hooghly river where Moslems and Hindus are ramming and sinking the narrow, wooden craft of their opponents.

Move Tanks Into City
The British moved tanks into the city and frequently fired into mobs to break their grips momentarily. Nevertheless, entire families have been slaughtered and then cremated inside their straw and wooden shacks.

In native sectors, few of the tiny food shops escaped looting. Property damage long ago passed the four million dollar mark and now is considered inestimable.

Telephone and transportation services are almost completely out and all markets are closed. A serious food shortage is expected within a few days.

There has been no indication that the leaderless mobs even considered appeals by Hindu and Moslem party officials to cease their battling.

City officials frankly fear that disease may follow because of their inability to remove decomposing bodies from the streets or perform the usual sanitation services.

An epidemic in the native quarters, where homes are packed close by along narrow alley-ways and usually have no floors, would be extremely difficult to check. Population of Calcutta is two million two hundred and fifty thousand.

ward Howell—died in Frankford Hospital from injuries received when the car in which he was a passenger smashed into the rear of a parked trailer-truck.

In another Philadelphia-area highway mishap, Anthony Nagy, 21, of Phoenixville, lost his life when the automobile he was driving struck a culvert and crashed into a pole.

Killed In Plane Crash
At Robeson, 16 miles west of Reading, two men were killed when their plane plunged into a cornfield and burned. The victims were identified as John Hicketnell, 40, of Paxtang, near Harrisburg, and Lewis Matello, 34, of Enbata, also near Harrisburg.

Police said Hicketnell was the pilot and Matello the mechanic. The plane apparently was a former army training ship which took off from Harrisburg airport before the crash.

Drowning victims in the Philadelphia area included James W. Kanuba, 26, of Clifton Heights, whose body was recovered from the Derby Creek. Police said he apparently had fallen into the stream. A certificate of accidental death was issued.

Boy Drowns
Meanwhile, authorities feared that six-year-old Bruce Burns, son of a Valley Forge industrialist, drowned in the ocean at Ocean City, N. J.

The Philadelphia man who died at the wheel of his car was John J. Mangan, 45, a tavern proprietor. His four children—two sons and two daughters—were riding with him when he was struck by a heart attack while walking toward her home near McKeesport. County Detectives said that an automobile driven by Cecilia Biddle, also of McKeesport, skidded on the wet pavement and crashed into Mrs. White.

At All City, William V. Soene, 18, was killed when his car failed to negotiate a curve near Kaneville. Bradford county authorities said Robert Wells, 22, of Wyalusing, was killed and Clifford Wells, 20, was injured critically, when their airplane struck a power line in To-wanda.

A homemade motorboat exploded on the Allegheny river drowning two men and seriously burning another. The dead were Elmer R. Mell and Edward Klameyer, 22, both of Natrona Heights. Mell's brother, Leonard, 24, was burned on the face and body.

Eight-year-old John Mattern, of Rochester, was drowned near Unionville, Beaver county, when he stepped into an eight-foot pool. The youth had been visiting relatives and had gone wading in Brush Creek when the accident occurred.

An army plane was killed and his P-51 type plane was burned when it crashed into the side of Tissey mountain during a heavy fog. State police said the body was so badly charred that identification was impossible.

REPORTERS CONFER WITH PRESIDENT MONROE'S SON

Asked about his formula for longevity, Major Monroe—who has survived three wives and eleven children—said: "Live a clean life."

As to the cigar, he said he didn't smoke. Festering at the one in his mouth, he described it as "a treat."

On the other important subject, Monroe said: "I take a glass of water with a glass of whiskey to make it sociable."

Eats Anything
Indicative of how time marches on, one of the younger reporters asked him what manner of flag he was carrying. Monroe gave the young man a brief lecture on the stars and bars—particularly the thirteen stars.

Then the discussion got around to diet, but Monroe wasn't overly helpful to those who would live a century and a third.

"I eat anything," he revealed. The nurse who accompanied the bald, white-goated oldster by plane from Jacksonville, Fla., disclosed that a physician who examined him at the airport here was astonished to find his blood pressure 149, his pulse 70, and his heart "like that of a man of fifty."

Born patriotically enough on July 4, 1818, Monroe served as a major in the Confederate army at the age of 45. He also served in the Boer war and had the dubious honor of having a price placed on his head.

At the outbreak of World War I, the old man tried to enlist, but it appeared that 29 years ago the army wasn't taking men at the age of 102. So he went to work in a shipyard—as a riveter, he said.

The son of America's fifth president does not wear glasses, his hearing is fair and his voice, though badly cracked, is understandable.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 19.—(INS)—Frank Corbett, 47, of Pittsburgh, was in jail today on a felonious shooting charge after, police said, he wounded Harry Jones, whom he accused of stealing his wallet containing $250.

Police said they found the wallet and $143 on Jones in Allegheny General hospital. Jones suffered a bullet wound in the jaw.

More troops and police units than ever seen before in a Palestine community have been placed on fixed sentry duty.

Authorities admit the Holy City is in a state of "trigger nervousness"—just waiting for an outbreak.

In London the Daily Graphic said the captured plans outlined concerted attacks on all police stations and public buildings in the Holy City, Haifa and Tel Aviv.

Fear Mass Uprising
British officials admitted such a mass uprising would not surprise them since for the past week the extremist organization Irgun Zvai Leumi has been holding for joint operations with Hagannah and the Sternist gang.

Special precautions have been taken to guard senior British officers to foil any slaying attempt.

Jewish tempers flared anew when hundreds of illegal immigrants sailed for Cyprus from Haifa aboard the transport Empire Rival in the second deportation operation under the new immigration ban.

A dispatch from Cyprus said the Rival arrived at Famagusta this morning, escorted by the British Cruiser Ajax.

The same report said 1,286 Jews in camps on Cyprus have begun a hunger strike against British treatment.

WORLD STATESMEN CONFRONTED WITH ARRAY OF TROUBLES

However, the state department has commended the British plan for independence and expressed hope for a satisfactory solution.

In the Middle East, with oil one price and control of the vital lifeline to the east another, reports increased that Russian troops were massing along the border of Azerbaijan to counter British reinforcements in Iraq. The latter are there to protect British oil concessions in Iran, where labor trouble has repeatedly flared up.

These troubles are blamed by the British on the Communist-sympathetic Tudeh party.

In the Far East, Gen. George C. Marshall still wrestled in one last desperate effort to bring about a unified China by bringing agreement between Communists and Nationalists. Odds were being laid against him.

Patterson said the plane was flying a regular run from Vienna to Udine, became lost in a storm and was attacked as it emerged from a hole in the clouds.

Detained Americans, in addition to the pilot, included Richard M. Blackburn, UNRRA official, of Cleveland, O. American Embassy officials said the interned fliers were in "fine condition and well treated, living in separate rooms and getting good food."

camp and automobiles and debris were strewn over a path a quarter of a mile long.

Forty-five minutes later another tornado ripped through Wells, 25 miles southeast of Mankato. Thirty persons were injured there and nearly every business building in the town of 2,800 population was damaged.

Several of the 50 persons injured at Mankato were reported in a critical condition by Dr. D. Roy Andrews, Blue Earth county coroner. He said that perhaps two or three would not survive.

More than 400 persons were in the State theater at Wells when the front of the building collapsed and bricks rained down after the entrance. However, only a few persons in the audience were injured.

At Mankato the roof of the Catholic church caved in seconds after 50 persons took refuge in the basement.

WALLACE CHAPEL SCENE OF WEDDING

In Wallace Memorial chapel, New Wilmington, Saturday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock, two Westminster College alumni were united in marriage when Miss Marion Eleanor Brown, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William John Brown, of 414 Young street, became the bride of Francis Bruce Johnston, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rankin Smith Johnston, of New Wilmington.

Dr. Robert F. Galbreath officiated at the double ring ceremony. The bride wore a wedding gown of white tulle with sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, and an overskirt of marquisette. Her veil of illusion fell from a tiara of orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladiolus and stephanotis on a background of tulle and her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, gift of the groom.

Miss Gladys Brown as her sister's maid of honor wore a floor-length gown of pink net with matching crownless hat of tulle and carried an arm bouquet of summer flowers.

Rev. John H. Galbreath of Coraopolis was best man for the groom. Rev. Joseph Hopkins, of New Wilmington, and Robert Menelly, of Pittsburgh were ushers.

Nuptial organ music was played by Mrs. George Hawbaker, of Hazerstown, Md., a college classmate of the bride, and Mrs. Paul B. McCandless, Jr., of Indiana, Pa., her college roommate, soloist, sang "Because," "I Love You Truly" and "Ich Liebe Dich."

Following the ceremony there was a reception for 50 guests at an inn in New Wilmington.

The couple left by motor on a wedding trip to an undisclosed destination and on their return will take up residence in Pittsburgh where Mr. Johnston is a student at Pittsburgh-Xenia Theological Seminary. The ceremony was performed at 2:30 p. m. with Rev. Ignatius Koller, of St. Mary's church, officiating, using the double ring service. A large group of friends and relatives were in attendance. Prior to the ceremony, appropriate music was played by Bernard Thompson. The selections were "Because," "O Promise Me" and the wedding march.

Her large hoop skirt was edged with tiny alternating rows of Chantilly lace and ruffles, ending in a long train. Her fingertip veil fell from a Juliet cap of Chantilly lace, edged with orange blossoms. As her only jewelry the bride wore a diamond lavalliere, and she carried a prayer book covered with satin, marked with gardenias and streamers of stephanotis.

Study Of Wisconsin Primary Result

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—A study of the recent primary election in Wisconsin shows the varied forces at play in this year of dense political apathy. Wisconsin has always been a singularly fascinating political laboratory and, in the primary, it lived up to that reputation.

The strategy attempted behind the scenes, months before the contest took place, had not a little to do with shaping the final outcome. Before Sen. Robert M. LaFollette, Jr. announced his intention, in March of this year, of giving up the Progressive party and returning to the Republican fold, he had a most interesting offer from Democratic Chairman Robert Hannegan.

Hannegan wanted LaFollette to turn, not to the G. O. P. but to the Democrats. He intimated that, if LaFollette would seek reelection as a Democrat, he would have the support of the Democratic organization in Wisconsin, and more important, he would get help from the CIO-PAC.

LaFollette rejected this offer. Hannegan realized then that his task was to find a liberal with a progressive record to run in the Democratic primary. He decided on former Congressman Howard J. McMurray.

McMurray was not easily persuaded. The Democratic organization in Wisconsin has slipped badly. But finally McMurray yielded to Hannegan's arguments and ran unopposed in the Democratic primary. The results show that he received the votes of labor in industrial areas which in the past have gone to LaFollette.

Blames Communism
Whether that resulted from teamwork between Hannegan's Democratic committee and the PAC is an open question. LaFollette believes his desertion by labor was the product of a deliberate campaign by the extreme left—under Communist domination—to defeat him because of his stand on foreign policy. He attributes the start of this campaign to criticism of Soviet Russia which he made in a speech in May of 1945.

Thus, as LaFollette sees it, the extreme left in the labor movement combined with the extreme right in the Republican party to kill off a middle-of-the-road liberal. He puts the same interpretation on the defeat of Sen. Burton K. Wheeler in Montana.

Certainly the maneuvers of the extreme right were plain enough. Republican regulars, headed by Thomas Coleman of Madison, had a chance to take LaFollette back into the fold and forgive him his revolt against the G. O. P. He had made himself a national figure, and even if his conservative as well as liberal papers, he has been praised for his ability in Congress. Instead, the old guard in Wisconsin slammed the door in LaFollette's face.

Same Action Taken
They took the same action with Gov. Walter S. Goodland, whose vote-getting ability has once again been proved by his reelection in spite of opposition from both outside-line Republicans and Progressives.

Judge Joseph R. McCarthy, who defeated LaFollette appears to be an able, hard-working politician with the advantage of an excellent war record. He campaigned the whole state intensively while LaFollette remained in Washington to help the LaFollette-McMurray reorganization bill through Congress.

Orthodox Republicans are taking for granted McCarthy's election this fall. But while Democratic leaders here recognize the odds against them, they are going to make sure that McCarthy has a run for his money. McMurray has been pledged the all-out help of the Democratic national organization.

Progressives will certainly be angered over LaFollette's defeat. McMurray can appeal to them as a liberal who has championed what they believe in. The race this fall should not be a walkaway.

Ungrateful Voter
One is forced to a melancholy reflection on the ingratitude of the voter. Even the special-interest groups forget their friends. As chairman of a Senate labor subcommittee LaFollette directed a searching investigation into the anti-union practices of big employers. He showed how goon squads, spies and stool pigeons were used to prevent union organization. Against this rather sinister background, his opinion was created which helped to make possible the passage of legislation safeguarding the rights of organized labor.

But memory is short. The votes of labor defeated one of the ablest men in the Senate. Even though he is out of the Senate, there should be a place in government for an expert who has put more than 30 years into learning what makes government wheels go round.

One Man's Opinion

The reason for the president's yacht trip has leaked out. . . . Harry is charting the coast of Maine for a Democratic landing in '48.

I understand that the first time Harry pointed a telescope toward land he sighted a sign that said "if you can read this you're too darned close."

There's never any doubt about politics in Maine. . . . The people you see on the jama and streets are Republicans and those off shore are Democrats waiting for a dark night to land.

With the president at sea, Mr. Byrnes in Paris and Congress adjourned the question has arisen. . . . Who is running the country today? The answer is the same people who have been running it since the war ended.

But if anything happens as a result we've got our explanation ready. . . . "It's all right officer. . . . we were just dozing."

LOOKING AT LIFE

By ERIC BRANDIS

You never know, do you?
I thought I had received about every request under the sun, but this morning's mail brought a letter from a young lady in Montclair, N. J. which reads as follows:

"I would appreciate it very much if you could tell me where I could purchase material for lampshades and also trimmings. I have tried different places in Newark without success; perhaps you could suggest a place in Newark or New York."

I was going to ask my wife about the young lady's problem, but she is gallivanting somewhere around Brookfield, and I am in New York today, and my secretary is away on her vacation.

So I called up a couple of our large department stores and they all seem to have plenty of material for lampshades and trimmings. However, as soon as Marion McCarrill, our women's editor, comes in, I'll get the exact information from her and send it on to Montclair.

The main reason I am telling you about this letter is to show you that the so-called important problems about which you read so much are really not nearly as important as lampshades and trimmings and steak and sausages and electric light bulbs and lawnmowers and shirts.

Just yesterday I tried to get my wife interested in the Paris peace conference, but she was so busy trying to find a place where she could buy soapflakes that Mr. Byrnes and Mr. Molotov left her completely cold.

It might be a good idea for those great statesmen in Paris and in London, in Moscow and Washington to think about that for a few minutes before they go into their sessions.

The corn and other vegetables should really perk right along now. . . . The rain that we experienced over the week-end was needed and badly too. While some of the folks who were planning on a picnic were disappointed the farmers and gardeners were mighty pleased. This week we hope will be fair and warm. . . . have a few picnics to attend and beside that we haven't had too much summer this season. . . . and in a very short time September will be here and that means the end of play time. . . . as school you know starts right after Labor Day. . . . oh, how time does fly.

Our small fry. . . . the female small fry is coming right along with her horseback riding. Only a few falls and now she goes right along. One of the greatest little riders this community ever had. . . . and one that is very popular throughout this district can be found in Wampum. . . . Janice Marshall has been in more horse shows than the average citizen has ever seen. . . . and what wonderful sportsmanship she shows too. This summer her father purchased a new pony and you should see the show that Janice puts on with this animal. . . . don't miss any horse shows where this young lady shows.

Baseball surely made a good showing here in New Castle this season. . . . and there should be no question in the sportsman's mind about the need for a good diamond. . . . a diamond that could be fixed up for night playing. This will be at rather expensive operation but should be done. . . . and we think should be done. The small fields that we do have around town are always crowded. . . . and while the games are not played by experts. . . . there are some good games and with this in mind and the incentive that a really good ball park would give the boys. . . . this community could be known throughout for its baseball. Give this some thought. . . . an organized effort is needed.

Now that the ceiling has been lifted from flag poles. . . . there will probably be a rush to see who can place the most and in the most unusual ways. Typical Washington confusion. . . . deliberating on flag poles when so many other necessary topics need serious consideration.

MARSHALL DEFINES COMMERCE

At the February term of the Supreme Court of the United States in 1824, a Decision of the Court of utmost importance was rendered by John Marshall. It was the case of Gibbons vs. Ogden, and it was an appeal from the Court for Trial of Impeachment and Correction of Errors of the State of New York.

It was a Decision affecting the commerce between the States, without which Decision there would be no Interstate Commerce Commission; there would be no business trading between the cities of the Atlantic Coast and the cities of the Pacific Coast or any of the rivers; the great fleets of barges carrying products of iron, steel and coal would never have navigated the waters of the Ohio, nor would Mark Twain have piloted a steam boat on the Mississippi.

It will be remembered that Robert Fulton navigated the waters of the Hudson in his steam boat in 1807—the first successful use of steam as a motive power for boats.

John Fitch had invented a steam boat before Fulton and the State of New York on March 19th, 1787 for the first time passed an Act granting John Fitch the exclusive right to make and use any kind of a boat or vessel propelled by steam, in all creeks, rivers, bays and waters, within the territory and jurisdiction of New York for fourteen years.

On the 27th of March, 1798, another act was passed by the State of New York, on the suggestion that Fitch was dead, or had withdrawn from the State, without having made an attempt to use his privilege, repealing the grant to him and conferring similar privileges, on Robert E. Livingston, for the term of twenty years, on a suggestion made by Livingston that he was the possessor of a mode of applying the steam-engine to propel a boat, on new and advantageous principles.

Later on the 5th day of April, 1803, another Act was passed by which it was declared that the rights and privileges granted to Livingston, by the last Act, should be extended to him and Robert Fulton, for twenty years from the passing of this Act.

Then on April 11th, 1808, the legislature extended the monopoly, in point of time, five years for every additional boat, the whole duration, not to exceed thirty years, and forbidding any and all persons to navigate the waters of the State with any steam boat or vessel, without the license of Livingston or Fulton, under penalty of forfeiture of both vessels.

And lastly came the Act of April 8th, 1811, for enforcing the provisions of the last mentioned Act, and declaring that the forfeiture of the boat or vessel found navigating against the provisions of the previous Acts, should be deemed to be a crime on the day on which such boat or vessel should navigate the waters of the State; and that Livingston and Fulton might immediately have an action for such boat or vessel, in like manner as if they themselves had been dispossessed thereof by force, and that on bringing any such suit, the defendant therein should be prohibited by injunction from removing the boat or vessel out of the State, or using it within the State.

Barkley Would Have Resigned If OPA Bill Lost
Senate Leader Set To Quit Had Truman Nixed It
Slaughter Purge Held Pyrrhic Victory For HST

(Special to Central Press)
WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—President Truman, it can now be disclosed, would have lost his administration leader in the Senate if he had vetoed the second OPA extension bill.

Senator Alben Barkley (D-Ky.) was prepared to resign as majority leader. He made no secret of the fact and told several friends "I resigned once before and I can do it again."

This was a reference to the occasion on which Barkley resigned as Democratic leader when the late President Roosevelt vetoed a tax bill and sent a scorching message to Congress along with the veto.

Senate Democrats then re-elected Barkley unanimously as their leader and the opinion was often expressed thereafter that from that moment Barkley became the real Democratic leader and not just the president's representative in the Senate.

Barkley was compelled to consider resigning again because he felt that another veto would in effect be a repudiation by the president of his leadership in the Senate.

The senator felt keenly the action taken by Mr. Truman in vetoing the first OPA extension bill, after the congressional "Big Four" leaders, including Barkley, had recommended approval.

Barkley recently completed nine years as majority leader and was eulogized by the president and by a number of both Democratic and Republican colleagues.

Hail Truman Victory
Republicans are seizing joyfully upon President Truman's victory in the Missouri primaries—the "purge" of Rep. Roger C. Slaughter and the nomination of Earl Axtell as the Democratic candidate.

The G. O. P. national committee regards the Truman triumph as a purely party affair and a pyrrhic political victory which will lead to election of Axtell's Republican opponent in the fifth congressional district next November.

This candidate is Albert L. Reeves, Jr., son of the federal judge who played a major role in breaking the old Pendergast machine and putting the late Tom Pendergast behind bars.

Senator Wiley (R-Wis.) and other Republicans are seizing joyfully upon President Truman's victory in the Missouri primaries—the "purge" of Rep. Roger C. Slaughter and the nomination of Earl Axtell as the Democratic candidate.

Higher Auto Prices

News from Washington is to the effect that the OPA will authorize another increase of at least 5 per cent in the retail price of automobiles, on top of the most recent increase. It is news that will be read by most Americans with a certain amount of dismay.

It is true that relatively only a few will have a chance to buy one of the new cars for many months. But nearly every American family hopes, sooner or later, to replace the battered prewar model with a new one and the prospect of having to pay from $62 to $325 more for that privilege is not, to say the least, a pleasant one.

But no one familiar with all the facts can deny the justice of the increase. The latest rise in prices does not swell the "profits"—one small independent manufacturer had a manufacturing loss of $10,000,000 in the first six months of 1946—of the car makers. In fact, it does not affect their returns at all. What it does is to restore to the nation's auto dealers the profit margins they had before the war and before the OPA intervened to force them to absorb a large part of the increase in the cost of making cars since wages in the industry were raised.

It was grossly unfair to take these increased costs out of the dealers' hides. To be sure, their prospect for the next year or so—barring strikes—is extremely good. They can sell every car the manufacturers ship them for months or years. But it must be remembered that although some retailers did a profitable business in secondhand cars, a great many dealers had little or nothing to sell during the war, and consequently, no return on their investment.

There is a chance, of course, that car prices will not remain high indefinitely. The automobile industry, when there are no strikes, is a highly competitive one. In the not too distant future it may again bring out new models at successively lower prices.

Knotty Matrimonial Problem

Love may laugh at locksmiths, but so far it has not been able to summon a wan smile at U. S. Army regulations. But, apparently, it is still making the old collegiate try.

It seems that a number of GIs in Germany, unmindful of the adage that when you take a rifle it is only for a year or two or three, but when you take a wife it is for life, would fain hear the well-known strains of Lohengrin whilst strolling the long mile with a blushing frau on arm.

However, they are experiencing some difficulty in achieving such marital aims because present U. S. Army regulations frown on unions of GIs in Germany with members of the native glamor band. In this respect, British army regulations differ. This being the case, there has suddenly developed a movement on the part of a number of American GIs to transfer to the British army for matrimonial purposes only.

After the deed is done, these GIs plan to transfer back to the American forces and ultimately bring their German brides home with them. The GIs do not seem to be making much progress with this brilliant strategem, so they have devised other ruses for attaining their matrimonial objective.

In some cases, AMG authorities have revealed, GIs have resorted to the ingenious dodge of briefing their German heart throbs in the Polish language, hoping by this maneuver to persuade their superior officers that their prospective brides are non-German.

The chances that many marriages will come out of such dices appear slim. But, it all goes to prove that absence makes the heart grow fonder—for some nifty close at hand and heart.

Russian Geography Lesson

The shades of dead czars must have indulged in ghostly jubilation when Russia proposed to Turkey that the Black Sea powers take full authority to draw up a new treaty governing the Dardanelles, and that the USSR and Turkey jointly organize defenses of the straits.

If Turkey ever agrees to "joint" defense with Russia of the Dardanelles, the czars' old dream will be realized. Such a "joint" arrangement would mean Russian domination. But the most interesting part of the red proposal is Moscow's insistence that the Dardanelles are solely the concern of Black Sea powers—Russia, Turkey, Bulgaria and Romania, the latter two being recent axis members—and that the other signatories to the Montreux convention—Britain, France, Greece and Yugoslavia—have no right to a voice about the straits. The same Russian attitude undoubtedly prevails toward the United States, which has been suggested by Britain and Turkey as successor-signatory to Japan, which also participated in the Montreux convention.

Moscow announced this Dardanelles proposal simultaneously with Molotov's tirade, at the Paris conference, on the Italian peace treaty wherein he made it plain that Russia expects to have a voice in all questions affecting the Mediterranean. If Russia is a Mediterranean power, the United States, Great Britain, France and even Italy are Black Sea powers. And how do you like your own geography when it's thrown right back at you, Molotov?

Flood Shanghai With Fake Bills

SHANGHAI, China. — (INS) — Shanghai has become the happy hunting ground of a gang of expert American counterfeiters, who have been flooding the market with huge quantities of bogus $20 and $50 bank notes.

The spurious bills are so near perfect that experts have to employ the most scientific equipment to ascertain the genuineness of a bill.

The counterfeiters are happy for two reasons: the American Army in the past eight months has spent hundreds of millions of dollars for supplies and wages, paying with Uncle Sam's best Reserve Bank notes, secondly, Chinese although familiar with hundreds of varieties of their own currency, don't know the foreign money.

Almost three times a week, the American Army warns civilians and military personnel to be careful in accepting New York Reserve Bank 50's and San Francisco 20's.

The situation is so serious that the Army PX will not accept $50 bills over the counter.

TAX COLLECTIONS GOOD

In spite of the fact that tax cards were not gotten out until late this year, county tax payments have never been better. County Treasurer Frank W. Hill states, up to August 2, when taxes could be discounted, a total of $331,583.40 had been paid in of the $356,278.01 of the face of the duplicate, leaving but $44,694.59 to be collected. This has been coming in at the rate of around $400 per day, which will leave around $30,000 to be collected by the delinquent tax collector this year.

In the fiscal year of 1944-45 world coffee production totaled 24,484,000 bags.

DEER MENACE CROPS

MERCER, Pa., Aug. 19.—Mercer county must get hard-hearted and reduce its deer population, says Samuel Weigle, county game protector. Weigle reports the deer population is rapidly growing and believes it is due to reluctance of hunters to kill them in the county, where they are normally scarce.

The deer are causing considerable damage to farm crops and unless action is taken to have their numbers reduced they will work hardships in farming communities, Weigle explains.

conveying these articles of merchandise, as well as carrying this merchandise or people from place to place.

And in the Decree of the Supreme Court, it was announced:

"This Court is of the opinion that the several licenses to the steam boats, the 'Stouinger' and the 'Bellona' to carry on the coasting trade, which was set up by the appellant, Thomas Gibbons, in his answer to the bill of the respondent, Aaron Ogden, filed in the Court of Chancery, for the State of New York, which was granted under an Act of Congress, passed in pursuance of the Construction of the United States, gave full authority to those vessels to navigate the waters of the United States, by steam or otherwise, for the purpose of carrying on the coasting trade, any law of the State of New York to the contrary notwithstanding; and that so much of the several laws of the State of New York, as prohibits vessels, licensed according to the laws of the United States, from navigating the waters of the States of New York, by means of fire or steam, is repugnant to the said Constitution, and void. This Court is therefore of the opinion that the decree of the Court of New York for the Trial of Impeachments and the Correction of Errors affirming the decree of the Chancellor of that State, which perpetually enjoins the said Thomas Gibbons the appellant, from navigating the waters of the State of New York with the steam boats, the 'Stouinger' and the 'Bellona' by steam or fire, is erroneous, and ought to be reversed, and the same is hereby reversed, annulled, and void. And the Court doth further direct order and decree, that the bill of the said Aaron Ogden be dismissed and the same is hereby dismissed accordingly."

It will be seen how important this Decision of Marshall's was. If every State could make its own regulations as to the use of its boats either on the Atlantic or the Pacific, or the use of its rivers for the conveying of commerce and the citizens of the different States or for the use of the railroads in their steady march from the Eastern States to the Pacific Ocean, what would have happened to the nation? The Decision enabled commerce of all kinds to operate between the States free and untrammelled.

Walter S. Salant, the board's economic adviser, held the same position with former Economic Stabilizer Chester Bowles before the latter resigned during the OPA fight.

Bice Clemow, now acting secretary of the board, was Bowles' right hand man at both OPA and OES. His title at OES was executive assistant to Bowles.

The board's new director of information, Delmar Beman, was in OPA's information office for two years.

Observers feel that a staff with this background may strongly influence the board and sway its opinions toward the views of OPA in restoring controls on meat, dairy products, grains and other important foodstuffs.

Woodworth is charged with fatally wounding Amram Rosenberg following the kidnapping of British officers by the extremist group Urgan Zvai Leumi.

Changes Are Made In Child Labor Law Regulations

State Department Of Public Instruction Cites Recent Changes
In State Rules

Through the office of city superintendent of schools, Frank L. Burton, attention is called to the following letter from the Department of Public Instruction regarding the employment of minors.

The letter is as follows:
To the School Official Authorized to Issue Employment Certificates:

The Department of Labor and Industry has just notified us of the removal of certain wartime regulations in connection with the Child Labor Law of Pennsylvania, as follows:

Act 247—Employment of Pinsetters 14 to 18 years of age. On the basis of an informal opinion by the Department of Justice, Act 247 of May 21, 1943, amending Section 5 of the Child Labor Law, ceased to be effective on February 14, 1946.
The minimum age for employment of minors as pinsetters in public bowling alleys therefore reverts to 18 years.

Act 190—Employment of Minors
16 and 17 years of age for 48 hours a week and 10 hours a day. In connection with Act 190 the following information was received from the Department of Labor and Industry: "On April 1 and June 20, 1946, the industrial board of this department ruled that the hours of work for 16 and 17-year-old minors are eight a day and 44 a week, thus rescinding the wartime provision."

Issuing officials should be guided, according to the above information from the Department of Labor and Industry.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) FRANCIS B. HAAS,
Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Turkey To Delay Reply To Soviet

ISTANBUL, Aug. 19.—(INS)—The Turkish press said today that Turkey would delay its negative reply to the Soviet demand for a greater voice in control of the Dardanelles Straits.
The press said the Turkish answer would be timed to coincide with protests expected from Washington and London. U. S. and British ambassadors reportedly have conferred with Turkish officials.
The Soviet Union has disclosed that it wishes to revise the Montreux Convention, which now governs passage rights, eliminate non-Black sea powers from any voice in decisions on use of the Dardanelles.
Russia also asked to be included in joint defense bases of Turkish soil.

Around Hollywood
By JOHN TODD (L.S.S. Staff Correspondent)
HOLLYWOOD, Aug. 19.—Gene Autry, the original king of the screen cowboys, is crazy over horses, but he's just as crazy over airplanes. He's so crazy, in fact, he's not only bought his biggest and best plane—his fourth—but he's teaching Mrs. Autry to fly.
"She's doing all right, too," Gene said with pride. "Of course, right now she needs a lot of sky to fly in, but that's to be expected."
Your reporter wanted to know if she'd soloed.
"Not yet," said Gene, "she just flies with me. I don't do any dozing either while she's at the controls."

Mt. Jackson Man Has Live Rattler

Farmer Catches Rattlesnakes As A Sport—Brings One To New Castle

Few rattlesnakes have been seen in this locality in recent years, but people of Mt. Jackson and Mahoningtown had a chance to see and hear one yesterday when "Fritz" Cummings of Mt. Jackson and R. D. 3, Warren, Pa., brought a live one to town in a box.

Fritz, who caught his first one five years ago, "snoodled" this one on his farm about 7 miles out of Warren. In describing how he catches them, Mr. Cummings told of placing a forked stick over the snake's head and dropping a piece of string with a loop and slip-knot over its head (snoodling), before picking it up. The snake, believed to be a female because of its yellow color (males are said to be black), has five rattles and is about 40 inches long.

Five Kinds

In telling about some of the snakes stories he has heard, the snake master said that snakes have crossings, were they cross roads and the like, much as deer have. He vows that a rattler cannot squirt its venom except when it strikes through something, such as cloth. He mentioned that there are five kinds of rattlesnakes; the banded rattler such as this one is, the diamond back, two species of red rattler and what is known as the prairie rattlesnake which sometimes grows to about eight feet long.

He also told of the first rattlesnake he caught. It was blind, so he held a sack in front of it and shoved it into the sack. One snake he kept for three months before killing it. Snakes do not eat while in captivity he said, except when force fed. He put a live frog in the box with the snake, and a few days later on looking into the box found the snake coiled with the live frog sitting on top of the snake.

Although he has never been bitten, this one nearly hit him while he was showing it to some interested persons. Whenever the snake is disturbed it commences shaking its rattles and can be heard from 50 to 60 feet away. Fritz Cummings says that rattlesnakes won't have a chance to bite him, for after he kills this one, he has no notion of trying to catch any more.

REDUCES TO EIGHT CIGARS DAILY AT 94

CHICAGO, Aug. 19. — (INS) — Leonidas Dillon, of Chicago, likes a good cigar, although he agreed today that he believes in moderation in smoking.

He said he planned to reduce to four cigars daily when he reaches his 100th birthday.

Barmaid Law Upheld By Court

Cambria County Decision Sustains Law Prohibiting Employment Of Women As Bartenders

EBENSBURG, Pa., Aug. 19. — Pennsylvania's liquor control board emerged the winner after a fight in the Cambria county court over legality of the "Barmaid Law," which prohibits employment of women as bartenders.

The law, which exempts "the proprietor's wife or a corporation's agent," was upheld in an opinion handed down by Judge George W. Griffith. Judges John H. McCann and Ivan J. McKendrick concurred in the decision, believed to be the first court test of the regulation.

The issue came before the court in the case of two Johnstown taprooms found guilty a year ago of employing barmaids. The establishments—the Fishbowl, operated by the Shanahan brothers, and Bill's Place, operated by William Rabino-witz—suffered temporary suspension of licenses and then appealed.

The Pennsylvania Retail Liquor Dealers' association intervened in the case on behalf of the dealers, while the liquor board was supported by the Restaurant Employees' Alliance and the Bartenders International League of America.

TWO AUTOISTS HELD

Louis Hoover, Masury, R. D. 1, was charged today with driving a car while intoxicated, by Captain of Detectives W. G. McMullen, before Alderman J. C. Brice, as was John Planagan, address, Leslie hotel. They waited a hearing and were held for court in default of bail. Planagan's car was said to have damaged a bus fender at Washington and Mill street Saturday. Hoover's car damaged the car of Mrs. Clyde Boston, State street, in South Jefferson street, Saturday, according to police reports.

Time For Everybody To Work Together

WASHINGTON, Aug. 17.—(INS)—Economic Stabilizer John R. Steelman declared today that with the nation striving to reach an even keel "this is no time for labor to demand wage increases without corresponding gains in production."

Steelman in a CBS broadcast asserted also that "this is no time for businessmen to charge all the traffic will bear."

The stabilization chief said that with production and employment at their highest peacetime peaks Americans should fight ceaselessly against inflation and "stop, look and listen" before putting more dollars into circulation.

Steelman declared "This is a time for all of us—businessmen, workers and consumers—to fix our eyes on the same goal—the goal of getting production up to record heights and keeping it there."

He said that 58 million Americans have jobs and that the physical change-over of virtually all war production plants has been completed. But he warned:

"We've gone this far in regaining our economic balance after the war only to discover that we still have a lot of work to do."

He cited the reconversion office order to federal agencies to defer all but the most essential construction. He added:

"You know the reason why. The federal government, like all the rest of us, must not spend any money now that does not have to be spent."

Steelman urged "volume production" as a national motto for the next few months, and said:

"Together, we won the war. Together, we will win a full peacetime production and full employment with fair wages and fair profits for all."

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 19.—(INS)—An infuriated veteran of World War I today broke up a picket line in front of the Broad street railroad station in Philadelphia and tore up red flags borne by the marchers.

The pickets, who were marching in protest against what they called "legalized inflation," did not restrain the man who tore the pickets' flags to shreds and burned them.

The marchers said they were sponsored by the Socialist party and the Young People's Socialist League. The Philadelphia OPA offices are located in the station building. The vet was not identified.

POT OF GOLD

Boyle also admitted that on one of his trips he got married for the third time, although he had never been legally separated from wife No. 2. He said he was divorced from his first wife.

FBI agents testified a third man had stolen the automobile in Harrisburg, drove it to New Castle and "loaned" it to Cleaver.

Reiser And Musial Proving Real Spark Plugs

Keeping Dodgers And Cards Going In Pennant Race

Dodgers Defeat Phils As Reiser Stars, Cardinals Win Pair

RED SOX-YANKEES SPLIT TWO GAMES

By LES KONKIN
(International News Service Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—It's going to be tough making a choice between Stan Musial and Pete Reiser when the balloting begins this fall for the National League's most valuable player award.

It is admitted that Musial, the league's leading hitter, has a tremendous edge over Reiser in the batting averages and also has performed a near-miracle by changing himself from an outfielder to the circuit's flashiest first baseman in a few short weeks.

Single-handed, Pistol Pete has won game after game for the Dodgers. Yesterday, for instance, he was responsible for all of Brooklyn's runs as the Dodgers pulled a highly important 3 to 2 win out of the fire against the Phillies.

Cards Win Two
Meanwhile the Cardinals advanced to within two games of the Dodgers by taking two close ones from Cincinnati, 3 to 2 and 2 to 0. Dick Sisler's pinch single won the opener in the 13th, 3 to 2, and he made a hit in the nightcap which helped Harry Brecheen rack up a 2 to 0 shutout.

Individual pitching honors for the day were captured by Paul Dickson of the Chicago Cubs, who held the Pirates to one hit, a seventh-inning single, and blanked them 8 to 0.

The Boston Braves clubbed the New York Giants, 7 to 1, after the Giants had hammered out an 8 to 5 triumph in the first game.

Boxing-Yanks Split
In the American league, the Boston Red Sox and the New York Yankees split a twin bill. Floyd Bivens held the Sox to six hits and whitewashed them in the opener 5 to 0 as Charley Keller walloped his 23rd homer, but Boston got to Joe Page late in the nightcap and won it 4 to 3.

The St. Louis Browns upset Detroit twice, 4 to 3 and 6 to 5, putting a damper on the drive of the Tigers for second place.

Jess Flores of the Athletics blanked Washington, 11 to 0, but the Senators took the second game, 6 to 4.

The Chicago White Sox nosed out Cleveland in 11 innings, 6 to 4. They took a 13 to 3 beating in the nightcap.

BEFORE the ball season opened some observers expressed the opinion that the really good ball players who were in service would again flash their old form when they changed from guns to ball bats.

While some of the servicemen have given the prognosticators a bad summer, Ted Williams of the American League and Stanley Musial of the National circuit have given the same impressive performances they did prior to going off to war. Musial is heading the National loop hitters and recently made 12 hits in 14 times at bat. The Donora boy, now 25 years old, was the star of the National League as a regular outfielder with the Cards before the war. In a recent interview in St. Louis, he said: "You take your cut and if you're meeting the ball, you get hits." He hit .300 in the minors and continued that role after the Cards got him from Rochester of the International loop. He began his career as a pitcher but shifted in the outfield because of his batting prowess while with Daytona in the Florida league. "The crowd at George Washington field, Friday evening, goes to show that New Castle will support good teams," Sheriff Frank Coen said after the Legion "Pick-Ups" vanquished Paul McCullough's East Civics, 2-0.

Presley Jones, who, with his family, is here from Los Angeles, on a visit, said he recently met Jack Dempsey and a number of other notables of the ring who asked him to convey their regards to George Chip and others when he arrived here.

Billy Williams, the baritone, will vacation in Cleveland. No doubt he'll take in the Charlie Padalino vs. Artie Levine, and Mike Berskovich vs. Billy Walker scraps there tonight. Billy announced several shows at the Jolly boys years ago. . . . Bill Klee and Dr. Burr Rodgers returned several days ago from Canada. . . . Joe Eve expects to fish in Canada within a few weeks. . . . Dick Williams plans a trip to the Big Sandy and Allegheny. . . . A resident of Polk told here & there Saturday there is a rattlesnake den in the hollow between Polk and Pekin hills. He reports four were killed on a playground at Polk this season. . . . Anton Christoforidis, former light-heavyweight champ, back from war, is whirling gloves.

Two former stars of college basketball are operating here. They are William S. (Buckets) Bell, formerly of Carnegie Tech and now affiliated with the William S. Bell Company and Dick Short, ex-basketballer of Grove City College who is in charge of Kelley & Meyers. The Bell Company is building the concrete structures along the new 422 route. The other firm is blacktopping Spur 79 of 422 in the city. While covering a road story several days ago, here & there was with State Highway Department Engineer Howard Jones. While his car sped along old 422, another car drew alongside it and the occupant shouted, "Hello, Howard." We believe Howard is a Westminster man, Jones and other man who proved to be Dick Short, leaped from their cars, shook hands and held a get-together whereupon J. C. Micco, Bell's partner, after an introduction, said to Mr. Short: "There is a friend of yours on the 422 job," explaining Bell played against Short years ago. This was around 1926 when Grove City, according to what were told, had a four years run without a defeat until the Crimson met Plaid. "Buckets" played for the Plaid," said Micco. Dick pondered a moment then replied: "You're right. Do you know we said then that, if we had been defeated, we wouldn't kick if the defeat was handed us by Carnegie Tech." No doubt Short and Bell will get together and "play the game over."

Tubers Eliminate Martin Club; Now Move Into Final Play-Offs For Pennant

BESSEMER, Aug. 19.—Ellwood City's Elks blasted the Cementers here Sunday, 6-2, thereby sweeping their series and gaining the final play-offs which will be held later this week for the County League flag. The Martin men were humbled twice in a row by the Tube City club.

"Lefty" Hardisty looked like he had the Elks whipped going into the eighth inning yesterday. He had hurled beautiful one-hit ball for seven innings when the Elks rallied to bounce over six tallies. Slattery's error on an easy pop fly enabled the winning Ellwood run to cross the platter and take the contest.

Ralph Ferrante started on the hill for the invaders, with Ellsworth Bauder relieving. Ferrante was given the win. Glenn Stanley rushed to the scene for the Cementers in the eighth but the damage was done.

For the Elks the hitting of Miller was the best, rapping out a brace of doubles and a single. D. Anderson whammed two one-base socks and a double for the Cementers.

Medwick Suffers Second 'Beating'

Report Veteran Outfielder And Pinch-Hitter In Good Condition In Hospital

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—(INS)—Outfielder Ducky Medwick, who suffered his second beating in a Brooklyn Dodger uniform yesterday, was said to be in good condition today by attaches of Peck Memorial hospital.

Medwick, pinching in the seventh inning against the Phillies at Ebbetts Field, was unable to get out of the way of a curve thrown by Lefty Frank Hoerst. The ball struck him under the left mastoid process. He was removed from the field on a stretcher to the clubhouse, where he lost consciousness for a while.

The beating recalled the afternoon of June 18, 1940, when Medwick was hit on the head by Bob Bowman. For a time his life was endangered but he returned to action some time later.

After playing with the Giants, Braves and Browns, Medwick was signed as a free agent two months ago to help out the league-leading Dodgers in their pennant drive. He has been used mainly in pinchhitting roles.

Moose Winners In Twelfth Inning

Moose club had to come from behind to grab a 9 to 6 win in 12 innings Sunday from the Duca D'Abuzzis at Marshall field, to stay in the second-half race. A defeat would have given the Universals the second-half pennant.

Smith pitched a total of 10 scoreless innings after that disastrous first inning in which the Ducks tallied six runs, then gave way to Barbatto in the 11th inning, giving Barbatto credit for the win, when the Moozers put over a three-run rally in the top of the 12th. DeLeon, Smith, Van Dusen, Gentile, Eubank, Appell and P. Cook were the heavy hitters in the game.

Universals Need But One Victory

Universal A. A. baseball team stepped to within the shadows of the second-half City baseball league championship Sunday by edging the Raytown team at the Washington field 5 to 4 for their 18th win with Paul Morrison pitching a swell five-hitter and being in no trouble except in the ninth.

George "Pop" Adams played a fine game at third for the Universals, and Cardella made a few sensational catches in the field. Acting Manager Moekey Huff got back in the game after being on the bench for a week with a sore knee. Fraser was the losing hurler.

If the Universals defeat the Moose Tuesday the second-half race will be over. The series will get under way next Sunday, it was expected, between the Universals and Lawrence Indies, providing the Potters grab the game tomorrow evening.

Pirates To Train At Miami, Florida

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 19.—(INS)—The Pittsburgh Pirates' new owners Saturday took their first step in reorganization of the club and named Miami Beach, Fla., as the 1947 training camp site.

General Manager Ray Kennedy announced that the McKinney-Crosby-Johnson-Galbraith regime decided to depart from custom of training in California and move their charges to Florida's ritzy seaside resort after a survey of available sites on both east and west coasts.

Miami Beach was finally selected because of the number of major and strong minor league clubs training in the vicinity, Kennedy said. He added that the St. Louis Browns will be in Miami, the Boston Braves at Ft. Lauderdale, the Philadelphia Athletics at West Palm Beach and three triple A clubs will train nearby.

Former McFarland School Students Meet Saturday

Many a happy day was recalled on Saturday, when former students and teachers of the old McFarland school in Scott township, on the Harlansburg road gathered in the Liberty Grange hall, for their nineteenth annual homecoming and reunion.

Gathering at noon, when an old-fashioned picnic dinner was served in the hall, 125 sat down at the well laden tables.

After a time of reminiscing, when by gone days were recalled by teacher and pupil alike, Sam Hunt, in the absence of the president, called the business meeting to order.

Some interesting facts were recalled, when it was noted that Robert Stoner, Clarence Stoner and Miss Margaret Emery had never missed a reunion, since its inception, 19 years ago.

Mrs. Adah Gillespie and Miss Margaret Emery, were the oldest members present, having attended the school, over 60 years ago. Five members of the late Manning Hunt family were present, these being, Mrs. John Moore, Stewart Hunt, Mrs. Frank Hay, Samuel Hunt and Ethel Hunt.

At the election of officers, for the first time since the reunion in the office of vice president, Oliver Cameron; vice president, Samuel Hunt; treasurer, Robert Stoner; secretary, Miss Grace Eakin.

The group will meet again on the third Saturday of August in 1947.

Slippery Rock Enrollment Will Hit 750 Mark

Registration At Slippery Rock Teachers College Is Scheduled For September 9

Registrations of students for the fall semester at Slippery Rock State Teachers college will begin Monday, September 9, according to an announcement from the school.

Approximately 750 students are expected to enroll. Of these 400 will be first year students. This will include 130 freshmen assigned to Slippery Rock by Penn State college, to do their first year's work, and 32 nurses from the Butler County Memorial and Oil City hospitals.

Over 350 of the students enrolled are veterans.

Since the college enrollment in September will be practically double that of last spring, several new teachers have been added to the faculty.

Miss Margaret V. Rhoads, who has been acting dean of women at the school since January, is replacing Miss Bell Holaway and will be the standing dean of women.

Archie Dodds is to be the permanent dean of men and chairman of the health and physical education program.

Numerous other appointments have been made in the school.

VETS GOOD STUDENTS

COLUMBUS, O. — (INS)—Veterans who attended Ohio State University before the war are doing much better work since their return from military service say Junior Deans Leston L. Love of the College of Education and Chester A. Hutchison of the College of Agriculture. On the basis of a survey they report the veterans make excellent academic risks.
